

She was the recipient of the “2009 National Institute of Animal Agriculture Service Award” for distinguished leadership and named the 2005 “NIAA Volunteer of the Year” fueled by her passion for leading change in the animal health industry. Philanthropic leadership includes several community boards including EQUEST and the Dallas Symphony Orchestra Chorus.

Amelita is a visionary who transmits passion and energy into every challenge. She is eager to utilize her executive leadership talents in arts, animal sciences and information technology to help drive success in all your endeavors.

SELECTED ACHIEVEMENTS & SKILLS

---

Skills: Visionary. Passion driven. Enthusiastic. Committed to excellence. Goal oriented. Creative business solutions. Effective communicator; Writer, Speaker. Humanitarian. Entrepreneur. Philanthropist. Leader. Relationship builder. Business developer. Executive management. Innovator. Strategic planner. Problem Solver. Public / Government relations. Award winner.

RECENT CAREER OVERVIEW / ENTREPRENURIAL EXPERIENCES

---

Lone Star Park Equine Hospital, Grand Prairie, TX 2008 to Present

Diagnostic Laboratory / Practice Management

United States Department of Agriculture / Animal Plant Health Inspection Service / Veterinary Services:

Center for Epidemiology and Animal Health, Ft Collins, CO 2002 – 2008

National Animal Health Surveillance Programs, Riverdale, MD 2007 – 2008

NOTE: This project award resulted in the development of the Veterinary Streamlining Process System (VSPS).

IT Project Management / Marketing / Branding / Equine Animal Science Subject Matter Expert